NEED TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE?

My "AUTHORITATIVE TECHNICAL DIRECTORSHIP" has made the following productions a SUCCESS:

"BRAVEHEART" for C. B. DeMILLE, and the stage production of "THE HEART OF WETONA" for DAVID BELASCO are examples wherein technical and historical study are shown in the important correctness of detail.

My many years of active "authoritative technical directorship" and my own RESEARCH LIBRARY and collection of ARTS and CRAFTS of primitive races are at your service.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL YOU ARE ON THE SET! Let my experience help you on CONTINUITY, SET DRESSING, and COSTUMING—that is my profession.

GARETH HUGHES

has returned from Europe, and from New York where he starred in Lula Vollmer's new play, "The Dunce Boy," at Daly's Theater.

David Belasco writes, "Your performance is one of the most magnificient that I have ever seen on the English speaking stage."

Thomas Dixon writes, "Your work is perfection. Nothing finer has ever been done on the American stage by anyone."

* * *

Alexander Wolcott in his new book, "Mrs. Fisk," writes, "The best dramatic school I know is just the privilege of watching the great performances, and every once in a great while, quite without warning, we seem to be witnessing the renewal of the theater. I know I felt something of that, when I saw the glow of Gareth Hughes' performance in "Moloch."

* * *

The New York World says, "Up and down the scale of emotions he runs, and his compelling and human manner of registration stamp him as a master of pantomime and expression. The late Bobby Harron beloved for the strength of character which he impressed upon his audiences approached this latest star. But none today is comparable with him. And Mr. Hughes does not arrive at this high position at the hands of the make up box and the costumer. He is ruggedly frail, is possessed of a face that reflects youth and innocence and honesty, eyes so peculiarly formed that they leave their mark upon the memory, a well formed head with shaggy hair, a nose of the Yankee type, fine teeth and a well formed forehead. He appears to have been tailored for the films, and directors will search far before they will find one so ideally cast in form and face for the important roles this young man certainly will be called upon to portray. For he is a natural screen artist. He acts just as naturally as he breathes.

The Holy Bible

—is being ransacked for suggestions or subjects to be made into Stories for Moving Pictures—at least, I have heard of four prominent producers who have announced such intentions,—they are looking for big subjects.

Now I own a story that deals with material more ancient than any in the Bible and more modern than a babe born yesterday. It is original, it is different, it is new. It contains scenes and situations that have never been used or shown on any stage or screen, full of drama, plausible, possible, workable and CLEAN. The hero and heroine must be the very top of their profession and the Director must be a master with enormous backing.

This story will not be sent out to the scenario departments of the different studios. I will read it to any responsible Producer who has the authority to say "yes" or "no."

If interested, write for appointment

For over three years we have been building

The Standard Casting Directory

to its present high standing in the motion picture industry. Whatever success has attended our efforts has been due to the fact that we have kept always in mind the ideal of SERVICE.

Perhaps you have taken our service, and our efforts, as a matter of course. We do not; when there is an opportunity to improve it, we are the first to be interested.

We now have such an opportunity: to give you more, and a better service—without any additional cost to you—by adding to our facilities at your disposal a

FILM TEST LIBRARY

You know that your picture in the Standard Directory creates director and producer interest, suggests you for the part. You know, too, that the next thing you are asked for is a test; and you have often experienced, if your services are in demand, the difficulty of getting one of your own tests to the director's projection room, or you have heard of the producer's difficulty in getting a released picture in which you appear. Perhaps you have lost a part for reasons directly traceable to a difficulty over a test.

File your tests with us—and dismiss the matter from your mind.
